	Section:	General Policy	Revision #	3

and cooperation to colleagues. Shall not assume professional responsibility for the consumers of a colleague without appropriate consultation with that colleague.

- e. Understand the potential influence on consumers and co-workers and not exploit their trust. Avoid dual relationships that have the potential to promote conflicts of interest or that could impair professional judgment.
- f. Not engage in or condone any form of harassment or discrimination.
- g. Perform and present self as competent to perform services within scope of training and/or level of experience and not beyond.
- h. Act with consideration for the interest, character, and reputation of other professionals when replaced or when a colleague is replaced.
- i. Identify and prevent and eliminate discrimination in work assignments or in personnel policies or practices.
- j. Maintain respect for organization policies, procedures, and management decisions and take the initiative toward improvement of such policies, procedures, and decisions when it will serve the best interest of all consumers.
- k. Give precedence to professional responsibility over their personal interests.
- l. Accurately represent his/her education, training, experience, and competencies as they relate to their profession or scope of practice.
- m. Uphold all civil rights and report any violation to the Recipient Rights Officer.

2. SUPERVISOR RESPONSIBILITIES:

- a. Managers and supervisors shall assist agents(s) of WMCMH under their supervision in developing an understanding of that behavior which is considered unethical.
- b. Supervisors will document any conversation, including solutions and strategies for managing any situation that put their personnel into an unethical situation. Afterward the supervisor will notify his/her Director.

3. PROFESSIONAL COMPETENCY:

An agent of WMCMH will:

- a. In the practice of their professions, show a sensitive regard for the moral and legal expectations of the community in which they live and work, recognizing that occasionally these expectations may differ from their own and that a failure to be sensitive to such expectations may adversely affect the services and programs of the WMCMH.
- b. Act in accordance with the highest standards of professional integrity.

	Code of Ethics
	Chapter:	Personnel Administration	Policy #	4-2-1
	Section:	General Policy	Revision #	3

- c. Strive to become and remain proficient in professional practice and the performance of professional functions.
- d. Assume responsibility for enhancing professional knowledge, skills, and abilities, and actively improving competencies.

4. SERVICE DELIVERY

An agent of WMCMH will:

- a. Treat all consumers, board members, and co-workers with dignity and respect always. Treatment with dignity and respect shall be further clarified by the consumer or family member and consider the specific incident, treatment goals, safety concerns, laws and standards, and what a reasonable person would expect under similar circumstances. Examples:
 - 1. Calling a consumer by his/her preferred name.
 - 2. Knocking on a closed door before entering, using positive language.
 - 3. Encouraging the consumer to make choices instead of making assumptions about what he/she wants.
 - 4. Taking the consumer's opinion seriously.
 - 5. Including the consumer in conversations.
 - 6. Allowing the consumer to do things independently or to try new things.
- b. NOT discriminate against or refuse professional services to anyone based on culture, age, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, spiritual beliefs, physical or emotional disability, socioeconomic status, physical or emotional disability, ability to pay, enrollment in Medicaid/Medicare/CHIP, or language.
- c. Treat consumers and their family members with dignity and respect, being sensitive to conduct that is or may be deemed offensive to the other person. Staff shall refrain from coarse or vulgar language in the presence or hearing of recipients/family members.
- d. Treat consumers and family members with dignity and respect. Family members shall be given the opportunity to provide information about the consumer to the treating professionals; information provided to family members shall be within the confidentiality constraints of Section 748 of the Mental Health Code. They shall be provided an opportunity to request and receive educational information about the nature of disorders, medications and side effects, available support services, advocacy and support groups, financial assistance and coping strategies.
- e. Not discriminate against, or refuse supports and services to anyone based on race, color, creed, age, disability, sex, religion, national affiliation, marital status, sexual orientation, political considerations, or financial status.
- f. Admit individuals to supports and services based on identified consumer need
- g. Ensure treatment decisions are made independently of the consumer's ability to pay, reimbursement methodology, or other financial resource considerations.

	Code of Ethics
	Chapter:	Personnel Administration	Policy #	4-2-1
	Section:	General Policy	Revision #	3

- h. Not use his/her professional relationship with consumers to further his/her own interests.
- i. Assist persons requesting professional help in obtaining other supports and services if he/she is unable or unwilling to serve them.
- j. Demonstrate a genuine interest and respect the confidence in all his/her consumers.
- k. NOT foster his/her consumers' dependency on his/herself, but promote their independence, self-sufficiency, self-representation, and self-determination.
- l. NOT attempt to diagnose, treat, or advise on problems outside the recognized bounds of his/her competence.
- m. Provide supports and services within the guiding principles of person/family centered planning.
- n. Report/document all supports and services honestly to ensure that consumers and payors are billed appropriately and fairly.
- o. Recognize that consumers have a right to privacy and will always respect the consumer's privacy and confidentiality.
- p. Continue therapeutic relationships only so long as it is reasonably clear that consumers are benefiting from the relationship.
- q. Assist persons in obtaining other therapeutic services if an agent of WMCMH is unable or unwilling for appropriate reasons, to serve individuals who have requested professional help.
- r. NOT abandon or neglect consumers in treatment. If an agent of WMCMH is no longer able to continue to provide needed services, he/she will make reasonable arrangements for the continuation of such services.
- s. Not exchange any form of gifts, accept any money, or gratuities from consumers and/or their guardians
- t. Not perform any form of personal fundraising activities.

5. CONSUMER RECORDS

An agent of WMCMH will:

- a. Make every effort to assure that the information they report is accurate, timely, complete, and available when needed and that they release only the minimum amount of information necessary for the stated purpose. For example:
 - 1. Use their best efforts to ensure the accuracy, timeliness, and completeness of information they provide,
